

The Georgia Trust's 2004 Preservation Awards

Blair Schlossberg of Streetside Developers received an award for Excellence in Rehabilitation from The Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation at the Trust's annual meeting April 17th in Savannah.

Excellence in Rehabilitation awards recognize projects that make compatible use of a building through repair, alterations or additions while preserving features of the property that convey its historic value. This year the Trust presented 16 Excellence in Rehabilitation awards.

The Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation, founded in 1973, is the country's largest statewide, nonprofit preservation organization, with more than 8,000 members. For more than 25 years the Trust has recognized preservation projects and individuals in the state who have made significant contributions to the field of historic preservation. Awards are presented on the basis of the contributions of the person or project to the community and/or state and on compliance to the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.
